Invitation to the 3 ICSC – International Comradeship Shooting Competition

Dear Comrades

1. ICSC

The Military Competition Group (Militärwettkampf Gruppe, MWG) is inviting you to the third International Comradeship Shooting Competition from 11.09-13.09.2020.

1.1. Content

At the ICSC comradeship is paramount. The MWG would like to bring the use of the weapons and the official shooting programs of the Swiss Armed Forces nearer to their international comrades. From the personal weapon of every member of the Swiss Armed Forces to gunnery training. Participation is only possible for members of the army.

1.2. What the MWG offers

A whole day on the shooting range from the morning roll call until after the recovery of the material.

Shooting with the personally issued weapon in training programs and graded competition programs from 1-300m.

Over 200 shots with the Stgw 90 (assault rifle 90) and the P 75 (pistol 75) of the Swiss Armed Forces.

The possibility of shooting with other army weaponry, i.e. carbines and Stgw 57 (assault rifle 57; ammunition not included in entry fee).

Insight into the Swiss Armed Forces with its gunnery training and processes with the personal weapons.

Comfortable being together and cultivation of comradeship.

1.3. Board and lodging

An appropriate accommodation in the vicinity of the shooting range will be provided. Meals will be provided from Friday evening until departure on Sunday morning.

1.4. Registration

The participants can only register individually. There is no team registration. As soon as the registration is confirmed, we require the starting fees till we don't have the payment we can't confirm your participation due to logistical reasons. Due to the high demand of ammunition the registration fee is set at 110.-- € per participant.

The registration form you will find in the appendix.

1.5. Uniform

For the participants we expect battle dress. Mess dress is not needed.
